THE FOUR COINS

THE FOUR COINS are back. After taking time off to spend with their children and grandchildren, they are better than ever. Coming to us from the FOLLIES in Florida and their appearance on PBS, they are receiving Standing Ovations wherever they perform. Beautiful melodies and close harmony never go out of fashion. THE FOUR COINS are the only 50s group still composed of ALL ORIGINAL MEMBERS - George Mantalis, James Gregorakis and brothers Jack and George Mahramas.

Million Seller Gold Record "Shangri-La"

RED, HOT & BLUE

"Voted Best Show in Branson Last 4 Years"

Branson's All-American Ambassadors of Entertainment

High Energy & Then Some! (Springfield News)

The award-winning Red, Hot & Blue! Show is nothing more spectacular than hilarious wigs, fabulous costumes and TALENT! Six professional entertainers transport you on a nostalgic musical journey through the decades from Ragtime to Rock & Roll. Critically acclaimed as "All-American Ambassadors of Entertainment" the cast features high-energy song & dance from the Raucous Ragtime Era, the Roaring 20's, the jazz era of the 30's, the Big Band Era, the Hysterical 1950's, the Zany 60's and MORE!

Just what is Red, Hot & Blue, you ask? "An Entertainment Phenomenon!" A Phenomenon that had taken Branson, MO residents and area visitors by storm. They started on July 4, 1996 and have grown into one of Branson's premier production shows. A best kept secret among national group tours, the cast of Red, Hot & Blue! appeals to golden agers, baby boomers, and children of all ages. Hold on to your hats and stay focused because you might just miss one of their award-winning costumes or be blown out of your seats by their quick-moving choreography and precise vocal harmonies. Yes ... they do sing everything LIVE!
