First There is a Mountain Then There is No Mountain

✿✿✿...Then there is! ✿✿✿

Donovan Leitch, the Hurdy Gurdy Man, he who Wears His Love Like Heaven, gave the world the musical Zen koan There is a Mountain in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty seven. The Allman Brothers Band, they whose Road goes on Forever, took the melody that Mr. Leitch dreampt, and re-imagined it as one of their greatest instrumentals. Donovan performed upon the sacred fields in summer '98, for a day in the garden where Aquarians once gathered in summer '69. He played his composition for the gathered masses. Ten years later, Bethel Woods having risen from the hallowed ground, the Brothers Allman began their first performance there with their own version of the song. They called it:
