VW "BUG" & BUS STATUES TO BE PLACED ON NY STATE THRUWAY

Dateline White Lake - The reception to Sullivan County New York's "Dove Trail," incorporating 50 large fiberglass dove statues, to commemorate the 50th Anniversary of the Woodstock Festival, has been so positive that a second, similar project has been announced. Artists from all over New York State are busily painting 500,000 Volkswagen Beetle and Minibus statues in psychedelic 1960's colors. When finished, the statues will be unveiled, and placed haphazardly up and down the New York State Thruway during August 15 - 18 this summer, effectively bringing traffic to a stand-still, commemorating one of the greatest traffic jams of all time.
